LEAVING BABEL: OUR LANGUAGE SKILLS AT THE SERVICE OF THE INTERNATIONAL FORUM OF CATHOLIC ACTION

We thank those who have already responded and renew the invitation.

In the midst of crises, a solidarity guided by faith enables us to translate the love of God in our globalized culture, not by building towers or walls — and how many walls are being built today! — that divide, but then collapse, but by interweaving communities and sustaining processes of growth that are truly human and solid. And to do this, solidarity helps. I would like to ask a question: do I think of the needs of others?

Everyone, answer in your heart.

In the midst of crises and tempests, the Lord calls to us and invites us to reawaken and activate this solidarity capable of giving solidity, support and meaning to these hours in which everything seems to be wrecked. May the creativity of the Holy Spirit encourage us to generate new forms of familiar hospitality, fruitful fraternity and universal solidarity.

General Audience 2 September 2020 Catechesis: “Healing the world” - 5. Solidarity and the virtue of faith
